We have a two-stage complaints handling procedure, explained below. At each stage it will help us to resolve your complaint quickly if you can give us as much clarity and detail as possible, including providing any documents and correspondence and stating that you are making a complaint. If we do not have all the details required to deal with the complaint, we may contact you and ask you for further information.

We have a Committee in place responsible for managing and handling the complaints including notifying you of the outcome.

Stage 1

This is the first opportunity for us to resolve your dissatisfaction. We expect the majority of complaints to be resolved at this stage. On receipt of your complaint we will contact the Complaints Handling Officer and ask him/her to respond to your complaint.

Stage 2

If you are dissatisfied with the response at stage 1, you may request a review. This will be carried out by a responsible Senior Manager or Legal Person. Your request together with all subsequent correspondence relating to it should be sent to our Complaints Handling Officer, who will review and forward your request to the Committee.

If you are still dissatisfied

If having followed the two internal stages of our service complaints procedure you remain dissatisfied, you can ask to have your complaint reviewed by the Commission on Administrative Justice (Ombudsman) who is independent of the Commission. The Ombudsman will assess whether there is evidence of service failure or maladministration on our part.

You can contact the Commission on Administrative Justice (Ombudsman) as follows:
